Vor 20 Jahren begann Michael Aufhauser, der Gründer von Gut Aiderbichl, seine Arbeit im Tierschutz. Damals rettete er in Malaga hunderte von Hunden vor dem sicheren Tod. Er ist selbst vielfacher Hundebesitzer und hilft den Ärmsten der Armen, wo er nur kann. Seine Hundegeschichten sind spannend, lehrreich, amüsant und die meisten haben ein Happyend. Außergewöhnlich schöne Bilder dokumentieren in diesem Band sein Leben mit Hunden.

It's no picnic being a shelter dog, but one shelter resident found his plight particularly hard to endure. March became depressed after being forced to remain at a Philadelphia shelter due to a failed adoption.
