Because we realized that the title The Pit would thrill reviewers looking to take an easy shot at me, we changed the title to Darkfall, and subsequently the book received only good notices. It also became a bestseller; thus this murder of a pen name and the looting of his literary estate proved to be rewarding both creatively.

I just don't see how you can compare the PvP in DayZ to Darkfall. The PvP in DayZ is based around who see's who first (which is fine because it's a military simulator) while the PvP in Darkfall is more skill based since you have melee, tons of spells, and archery at your disposal and fights last longer. They are just two.
