En España y especialmente en México se sirve la Rosca de Reyes con chocolate caliente en la tradicional merienda del Día de los Reyes Magos. La rosca se hornea con una sorpresa especial en su interior: una pequeña figurita de porcelana que representa al Niño Jesús (hoy día se sustituye con un frijol seco).

At the beginning people used to present gifts to the “Baby Jesus” and mostly consisted of dried fruits, nuts, flour, honey, eggs and others. To commemorate the Epiphany, they took some of those gifts and baked a sweet roll with the shape of a crown, (Rosca de Reyes or King's Cake), remembering the Magi or Three Wise.
