Scots-Irish. In 1497 John Cabot claimed South. Carolina for King Henry VII, but it wasn't until March 1670 that settlers finally landed in what is now called Bull's Bay . Charles Town, settled in 1680, and renamed Charleston in 1783, was one of the first pre-planned towns in ..
Directory of Scots in the Carolinas, 1680-1830.

The influx of nearly five thousand immigrants annually from Scotland, Ireland, and Northern England between 1700 and 1775 significantly altered the cultural landscape of America's Chesapeake region. A sideboard table (Figure 1) probably made between 1760 and 1770 is an excellent example of the material influence.
